A shareholder was only entitled to attend and/or to vote (personally or by proxy) at the Meeting in respect of those shares which such shareholder duly evidenced to hold at the Shareholders' Record Time; any changes to a shareholder's holding of shares after the Shareholders' Record Time were disregarded for purposes of determining the right of such shareholder to attend and/or to vote (personally or by proxy) at the Meeting.

The requirements to attend and vote at the Meeting were included in the convening notice to the Meeting and reproduced in the Shareholder Meeting Brochure and Proxy Statement. The documentation was required to be delivered to the Company, duly completed, by the dates mentioned above, to the postal or electronic addresses set forth in the convening notice to the Meeting and reproduced in the Shareholder Meeting Brochure and Proxy Statement.

No admission cards were issued to shareholders; shareholders and their proxy holders attending the Meeting in person were required to identify themselves at the Meeting with a valid official identification document (e.g. identity card, passport). In the event of shares owned by a corporation or any other legal entity, individuals representing such entity who wished to attend the Meeting in person and vote at the Meeting on behalf of such entity, were required to submit—in addition to the Intention to Participate Form and a Proxy Form—evidence of their authority to represent the shareholder at the Meeting by means of a proper document (such as a general or special power-of-attorney) issued by the respective entity.
